

Worksheet for paraphrasing, quoting and citing a print or online JOURNAL ARTICLE

1. Write below the data elements or information regarding the book or ebook you are studying:

Author:

“Article title.” (note: write it in quotes):

Title of publication:

Volume:

Issue:

Publication year:

Page range:

Medium:

If an electronic journal, name of the database where you found the article:

If an electronic journal, what is date you looked at or accessed the article:

2. Using your own words, take notes below on important information you are learning from this article. Be sure to accurately paraphrase the text. If you are going to use a direct quote from the article, be sure to copy text exactly and mark the quote with quotation marks. Include the page number of the journal, if available, from where the quote was taken.

3. In the space below write a complete MLA citation for your print or online JOURNAL ARTICLE:

Here is an example of a complete MLA citation for a printed JOURNAL ARTICLE

Napoli, Philip. “Deconstructing the Diversity Principle.” Journal of Communication 49.4 (1999): 7-34. Print.

Here is an example of a complete MLA citation for an electronic JOURNAL ARTICLE

Farr, Thomas. “Diplomacy in an Age of Faith.” Foreign Affairs 87.2 (2008): 110-24. Academic Search Premier. Web. 4 Apr. 2012.